THE LOG OF 1960

Published by the Annual Staff of
Franklin High School
Franklin, Virginia

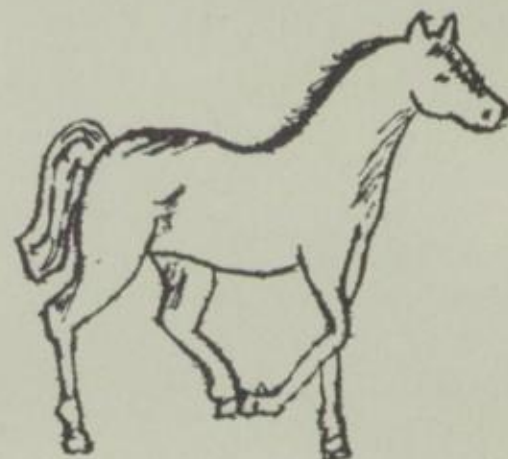

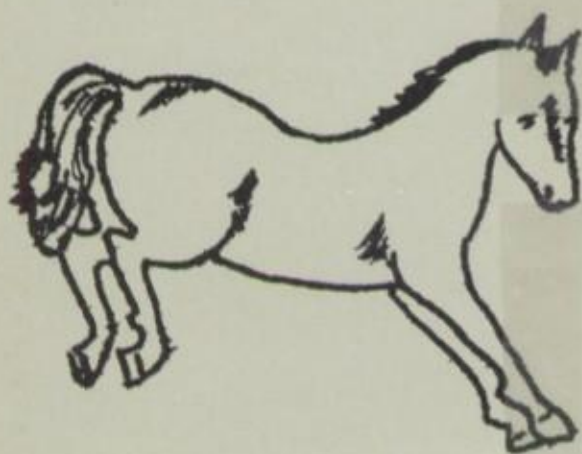

Here comes the Franklin High School Bronco, symbolic of our student body. He plays with us on the football field and on the basketball court; he cheers us from the stands; he worships with us at devotions, struggles with us in classes, rejoices with us at graduation, and reminds us always of our wonderful years in Franklin High School. Let's follow this little fellow as he takes us on a tour through our school.

The members of the annual staff who have worked faithfully to preserve the cherished memories of our high school days. Without thought of recognition or self praise, they have worked harmoniously planning the dummy, soliciting ads, taking pictures, and typing the copy. It is with pride that we take this means of recognizing our annual staff.

OUR SCHOOL

Here's to Franklin's Alma Mater
Gold against the sky;
Here's to Franklin's Alma Mater
As the years go by;
Forward onto victory
March right down the field;
Here's to Franklin's Alma Mater
We must never yield.

SUPERLATIVES

Most Popular:

Whenever things go wrong and
There's reason to complain,
Just call on Buddy;
He'll make things right again.

A smile and a good work,
A true friend indeed;
When it comes to hospitality,
Judy takes the lead.

Buddy Butler
Judy Dampier

Most Likely to Succeed:

Glenda Nicholas
Mickey McKann

To make straight A's in classwork
Is an accomplishment indeed;
Glenda wins honors in many fields
That's why we think she'll succeed.

An honor student to us appeals
A fellow who has high ideals
Always willing to lend a hand,
The perfect model of a successful man.

SUPERLATIVES

Most Athletic:

Lightening with a basketball,
Quicker with her smile;
Most athletic girl in class,
Winnie takes it by a mile.

Andy goes for all the sports,
But in basketball he's tops;
He's six foot six, tall and lean,
Andy's just a one-man team.

Winnie Pierce
Andy Scott

Most Studious:

George Parker
Patsy Burrow

What on earth is that awful noise
Coming from the dictionary!
Why, it's only good old George
Choking on his vocabulary.

Patsy is a quiet girl
Endowed with high ideals;
Not only does she make A's
She's just a swell girl in all ways.

SUPERLATIVES

Best Looking:

Tall, handsome Bob!
He's really quite a sport,
So well-polished and fine
Like a knight in Arthur's court.

She's always neat and pretty,
And her clothes are lovely too;
Her most attractive appearance
Will certainly impress you.

Bob Powell
Lannie Gene Gardner

Most Versatile:

Susan Forrer
Harold Blythe

Susan Wallis Forrer, ,
Happy, carefree Sue.
Sue's a lively, friendly girl,
Who keeps the boys in a whirl.

Harold is an honor student,
An all round athlete, too.
When it comes to dancing, he's a master,
Causing girls' hearts to beat faster.

SUPERLATIVES

Wittiest:

She's the sort of person
Who is nice to have around;
Her charm, wit, and humor
Make her our favorite clown.

Now here's a jovial fellow,
The joker of our crowd;
He makes good use of the talent of wit
With which he is endowed.

Orsalia Asteris
Larry Tillet

Most Friendly:

Dan Fowler
Mary Jane Jakeman

Dan's a shy fellow
With a friendly, shy grin;
His charming personality
Easily wins him friends.

To say that she is friendly
Is the least I can say;
But she really is the greatest
In every sort of way.
